

Afrodite Shorts Third Edition 2018

International Prize to “The last day of Summer” by Aleksandra Czenczek

“Aleksandra’s bitter-sweet tale tackles the theme of senility and dementia in a light hearted, unrhetorical manner. At the same time she makes us reflect on the important role of friendship in its highest form through a relationship which overcomes age barriers and all the preconceptions of disease and old age.”

